IN EDUCATIONAL COMPETITION THERE ARE NO LOSERS ...

Win, lose or draw, there are great values in educational competition. The pitting of one's skills, knowledge and talent against friendly opponents is a means of learning one's own strengths and weaknesses.

Good contests, properly supervised, give youthful competitors the opportunity to gain self-confidence, improve skills, and learn to win with humility and lose with grace.

When we strive honestly to improve ourselves, measuring our progress against our friends, we are raising our knowledge of the limits of our abilities. By pitting our efforts against others we learn how we stand, and we know what we must do to improve.

The self-discipline and sacrifice involved in competition are keys to those same values that will be of great importance to everyone in life.

In the best of competition there are no losers.

By Max R. Haddick

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The University Interscholastic League believes that most students enjoy the pursuit of excellence and seek opportunities to test themselves against their own accomplishments and those of their peers, that such opportunities are best provided through properly conducted and equitably administered competitive activities, that the classroom is enriched by the flow of student energy into the more intensified arena of competition and back into the classroom,

Therefore, we affirm that students are the focus of our endeavor and deserve an opportunity to refine physical and mental aptitudes, nurture self-realization and build self-confidence, feel a sense of pride and dignity, experience teamwork and develop a sense of fair play, develop the ability to lead and the willingness to follow, foster self-discipline and perseverance, appreciate that rules, consistently applied, create order and discipline, learn to accept graciously the decisions of judges and officials, affirm self-worth in times of disappointment as well as adulation, cultivate lifetime skills, complement their classwork with practice and performance, have fun,

experience the joy of achieving their potential in a wholesome environment and,

discover that ultimately the true meaning of winning is doing their best.
